Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

Allowance

1. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of the claims in this case, is the inclusion of the limitation "first means displaceable in a first direction, and second means adapted for co-operation with said first means, said first and second means being operable such that the arrangement, below a first predetermined value of a parameter representative of the energy to be transmitted, presents a first resistance-to-displacement value and, above said first predetermined value, presents a second resistance-to-displacement value, the first resistance-to-displacement value being greater than the second resistance-to-displacement value" in the independent claim, in combination with the other recited limitations in claims supported by this application, which are not found in the prior art of record.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled

"Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications should be directed to Primary Examiner Kiran B. Patel whose telephone number is 703-305-0254.
